Tour

Dhaka is a massive, colorful Asian metropolis. Start your day with boat riding along the Burigango River then wander through the narrow, winding streets of old Dhaka or touring architectural monuments. If you want to shop you can spend the day at modern shopping complexes in Dhaka or go for bartering with merchants at local markets. If you have more time you can go for wildlife spotting into the dense Sundarban mangrove jungles of Bangladesh in an attempt to spot the famed Royal Bengal Tiger. Detail tour plans will be available at the website.

Arrival

The International Airport (Hazrat Shahjalal Int'l Airport) is situated about 15 km from the heart of the city. Most airlines have direct or connecting flights to Dhaka. You can reach the venue or other hotels by taking prepaid taxi. Many of the hotels have also airport transfer. Transport from airport to the hotels may be arranged if requested to accommodation committee (info@bra-bd.org).

Weather

Bangladesh has three generally recognized seasonal variations. A hot, humid summer from March to June; a rainy monsoon season from June to October; and a cool, dry winter season from October to March. During December temperature averaging near 20°- 14° C (68-57° F) in day time and cooler in the evening. You would be requiring jacket/worm cloths in the evening.

Visa

Please obtain your visa before journey from the Bangladesh High Commission or consulate in your country. There is limited visa on arrival system.

Letter of invitation

The organizing committee will issue letter of invitation if required to facilitate delegate's travel and visa arrangements.

Currency

Bangladeshi currency is Taka. Many shops accept VISA/ Master Card/American Express cards. There are ample cash points (ATM booth) throughout the city.
